Topic: How to make our Projects more Profitable using openBIM?

Most professionals of the AECO industry in Hong Kong still find the concept of openBIM distant and abstract. But openBIM can make our projects more profitable and give additional value for our clients. How can we make this happen? For us to embrace the Real benefits of openBIM for our Projects and for our clients, first we need to learn how to work using openBIM. How can openBIM optimize our workflow saving time and errors? How reliable and accessible data throughout the whole process gives additional value to our clients?

19:00 – 19:15
